Sun・Fine Japanese

Hideki　Suzuki

In recent years, the number of international students who wish to study in Japan and build their future careers here has been steadily increasing. The Japanese language is not only a means of communication, but also an important bridge that connects people and fosters understanding of society and culture.

At our school, we place great importance on creating an environment where each student can study with confidence and steadily progress toward their individual goals. We offer a well-structured curriculum that enables students to develop their skills step by step, from fundamental Japanese to practical communication abilities, while providing full support for their advancement to higher education.

In addition to academic support, we also provide careful guidance on daily life in Japan and future career paths, ensuring that students can enjoy a safe and fulfilling study abroad experience.

We sincerely hope that the education provided at our school will broaden our students' future opportunities and empower them to become a bridge between Japan and the world.

School Overview

Educational Philosophy

Our fundamental educational philosophy is not only to facilitate language acquisition, but also to deepen intercultural understanding and foster strong communication skills throughout the learning process. Through the study of the Japanese language, we aim to encourage learners to actively engage in their studies, build meaningful interpersonal relationships, and develop the ability to thrive and succeed in Japan.

Location

Sun Fine Japanese Language School is located in Ichinomiya City, Aichi Prefecture.

The surrounding environment is highly convenient and comfortable, with easy access to supermarkets, hospitals, and public facilities, providing international students with a safe and supportive place to study and live.

The school also benefits from excellent transportation access. Nagoya city center is approximately 15 minutes away by train, making it convenient not only for commuting to school but also for part-time work and leisure activities, offering students a well-balanced and favorable living environment.

Key Features of the School

Five Key Features

Sun Fine Japanese Language School offers five key features designed to provide international students with a safe and supportive environment for both study and daily life.

01 Comprehensive Curriculum

日We offer a well-developed curriculum that focuses not only on the Japanese language skills required for higher education, but also on practical communicative competence.

02 Academic Guidance for Higher Education

We provide comprehensive support from career counseling to application preparation and interview training. In addition, we carefully assist students with post-acceptance procedures through to the final stage.

03 Student Support Services

We provide support for various administrative procedures at the city office, bank account setup, and residency-related processes to ensure that students can begin their lives in Japan with confidence.

04 Learning Environment

We place great importance on providing a calm and supportive learning environment where students can focus on their studies with confidence. Our faculty and staff carefully monitor each student's progress and well-being, and maintain a system in which students can feel comfortable seeking advice at any time.

05 Understanding and Exchange of Japanese Culture

We value providing a variety of opportunities for cultural exchange and hands-on experiences to help students deepen their understanding of Japanese culture and customs.

Course Overview

Two-Year College Preparatory Course (April Intake)

This is a two-year program designed for students who aim to pursue higher education at Japanese universities or vocational schools. The course systematically develops Japanese language proficiency from basic to advanced levels, with a balanced focus on the four core skills: reading, listening, speaking, and writing.

One-and-a-Half-Year College Preparatory Course (October Intake)

This is a 1.5-year program designed for students who aim to pursue higher education at Japanese universities or vocational schools. Intended for learners with a certain level of Japanese proficiency, the course focuses on strengthening applied and practical skills, enabling students to acquire the Japanese language ability required for further education in a shorter period of time.

Educational Objectives and Goals

TThe school aims to help learners acquire the Japanese language skills necessary to live independently in Japanese society and to pursue further education. Our goal is for students to use the Japanese abilities they have developed to actively contribute and succeed in Japanese society.

Learning Features

Based on our educational philosophy of fostering practical Japanese language proficiency, we aim not only to develop communication skills but also to equip students with the language abilities required for academic settings, such as understanding lectures, writing reports, and acquiring specialized terminology after entering higher education.
In addition to language study, we also provide opportunities to experience Japanese culture, thereby promoting a deeper understanding of Japanese society.

Course Completion Goals Based on the CEFR

Students are able to understand the main ideas of complex texts on both concrete and abstract topics, including discussions related to their intended field of study. They can also interact with proficient Japanese speakers with a degree of fluency and naturalness that allows communication without strain for either party.

Subjects

Our school offers four subjects:

1. Comprehensive Japanese
2. Kanji (Characters and Vocabulary)
3. Listening and Conversation
4. Reading and Writing

Additional Information

About Ichinomiya City

Ichinomiya is a convenient and comfortable city located close to Nagoya. By train, students can reach Nagoya in a short time, making it convenient for commuting to school and part-time work. The city has many quiet residential areas, and rent and living costs are relatively affordable, making it a safe and comfortable place for international residents who are living in Japan for the first time.

General Living Expenses

Apartments in Ichionmiya can be found starting from around ¥30,000 per month. Living with friends can help reduce housing costs even further. With approximately ¥80,000 per month for rent, food, and communication expenses such as mobile phone bills, students can generally live comfortably.

About Accommodation

Although our school does not have a dormitory, there are people who can help introduce apartments to students. The school also provides support with the documents and procedures required for apartment contracts.

Part-Time Work Regulations Rules

Students holding a “Student” residence status must obtain permission to engage in activities outside their status of residence before working part-time. Part-time work without this permission is prohibited.In principle, international students may work up to 28 hours per week. However, jobs related to the adult entertainment industry are prohibited even if students have obtained permission for part-time work.

Company History

- October 1947 – Hayashi Spinning Co., Ltd. established
- March 1981 – Company name changed to Sun Fine Co., Ltd.
- August 2002 – Sun Fine Co., Ltd. reorganized through company split
- April 2027 – Establishment of a Japanese language school by Sun Fine Co., Ltd. (planned)

Our company began in the textile industry in a region once known for its thriving textile production and grew alongside the local economy. As the industry declined, we expanded into nursing care and contracting services to meet changing community needs.
Today, building on our community ties and experience in human resource development, we are preparing to launch a Japanese language education business and contribute to a multicultural society through education.

Our Philosophy

Sunfine Co., Ltd. upholds the philosophy of “Gratitude and Compassion.”
Through sincere and heartfelt services, we are committed to creating businesses that bring warmth and comfort to the local community.
We sincerely appreciate your continued support and look forward to the company’s future growth and success.
